Number:	GOV-21-01
Approved By:	City Council
Administered By:	Legislative Services
Effective Date:	April 26, 2021

1.0 Purpose/ Background

The City recognizes the importance of public input and welcomes Complaints as valuable forms of Feedback. This Policy provides City of Oshawa Employees with consistent practices for handling Frivolous, Vexatious or Unreasonable Requests or Complaints about City programs, facilities, services and Employees.

2.0 Policy Statement

Actions taken pursuant to this Policy will ensure that municipal resources are used effectively and efficiently, while maintaining a high level of service excellence and responsiveness and at the same time providing a work environment that is free from discrimination, Harassment, bullying and violence as outlined in the City's Respect in the Workplace – Harassment and Violence Policy.

3.0 Scope/Application

This Policy applies to all Employees (including employees of the Oshawa Senior Community Centres), Volunteers, Students, and/or Contracted Service Providers of the Corporation of the City of Oshawa.

This Policy does not apply to:

- Complaints about Members of Council (as they are governed by the Council Code of Conduct By-law 51-2015, as amended, and investigated by the Integrity Commissioner);

- A function where there is a statutory or prescribed process for review or which is governed by specific legislation;

4.1 Examples of Frivolous, Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints/Requests

Examples of what might be considered Frivolous, Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints/ Requests are detailed below. This list is not exhaustive nor does a single behaviour on its own necessarily imply that a Complaint or Request will be considered Frivolous, Vexatious or Unreasonable.

Generally, the Complainant will exhibit one or more of these examples over a period of time:

- Refusing to specify the grounds of a Complaint, despite offers of assistance.
- Prolonged submission of Requests with high volume and frequency of communications to one or more City Employees via one or more customer service channels.
- Requests for information the Complainant has already seen, or clear intent to reopen issues that have already been considered and concluded.
- Refusing to accept the decision of the City, repeatedly arguing points with no new evidence.
- Where complying with the Request would impose significant burden on the Corporation in terms of expense, and affect our ability to provide service to others.

- Where the Complainant states that the Request is meant to cause maximum inconvenience, disruption or annoyance.
- Where the Request lacks any serious purpose or value. An apparent lack of value would not usually be enough on its own to make a Request Vexatious, but may when considered with other factors.
- Complaint is retaliatory or is initiated with the intent to embarrass or annoy another customer or resident or in an attempt to use City services or by-laws as a tool in an ongoing neighbour dispute.
- Making excessive demands on the time and resources of Employees with lengthy phone calls, emails to numerous Employees, excessive social media posts on City channels, or detailed correspondence every few days and expecting immediate responses.
- Causing distress to Employees using intimidation or hostile, abusive or offensive language, or an Unreasonable fixation on an individual Employee or any of the prohibited behaviours defined in the City's Respect in the Workplace - Harassment and Violence Policy.
- Making unjustified Complaints about Employees who are trying to deal with the issues, and threatening to negatively affect their employment status with the City.
- Excessive, repeated or hostile Cyberbullying and contact with City social media accounts, intended to harm, embarrass, Harass or slander the City or its Employees.
