6. City Update

- V. Abban provided an update on city initiatives. The full update will be shared with members.
- Members had a discussion about the City's upcoming workforce census for staff to consider.
 - What measures are being implemented to ensure equity-deserving groups feel safe and supported?
 - In the absence of a community engagement component, what checks and balances are in place?
 - This work will have to overcome the hurdle of not everyone fully understanding D.E.I. work, especially if it's not part of their lived experience.

- How are safe spaces being created for equity-deserving employees to share their experiences, especially to counter narratives that overlook their challenges?
- Clarification requested on whether community engagement is no longer happening and what the actual commitment is. Staff explained that this will likely be a phased process with community engagement to follow at a later time.
- Questions were raised about how meaningful the process will be without community engagement and the creation of safe spaces.
- Question asked about what the concrete commitment is to implementing recommendations or feedback that result from this process.

7. National AccessAbility Week campaign

- The City is working with Community Living Oshawa/Clarington to get quotes about what belonging means to them for National Accessibility Week. C.D.E.I.C. members are invited to provide quotes or encourage others in their network to provide a quote.
- The campaign will be on the City's social media accounts for N.A.A.W. and will be shown at the Special Council Meeting.

8. Communications sub-group update

- F. Milfort is working on an invitation for the Special Council Meeting.
- P. Serwaah is working on material to communicate the work of the C.D.E.I.C.
- A. Kong is working on a save the date for the D.E.I. forum.
- These materials will be shared with members in the coming weeks before being sent out to community organizations.

9. D.E.I. forum planning

- Members discussed details for the D.E.I. forum, including edits to the agenda and planning for the day.
- Discussion included the following action items:
