Summary

The Cultural Leadership Council (CLC) met on March 28th 2018. Derek Giberson (Chair of the CLC) commenced the meeting with a statement on pecuniary interests being expressed by CLC members; followed by a review of the November Meeting Summary, which was approved by CLC members.

Catherine Richards, Manager of Culture and Centralized Recreation Services presented an overview and an update on the Public Art Masterplan. The presentation concentrated on the approaches to public consultation and the tools that will be used to analyze the data.

This presentation was followed by a Public Art Café. A Public Art Café is an event where community members can provide feedback about Public Art through interactive programs and activities.

Members of the CLC were offered the opportunity to contribute their thoughts to all of the all interactive activities set up for a community inclusive Public Art Café. The activities included a mapping exercise, a location assessment, a finish the sentence activity. Feedback from the CLC will be incorporated into the plan and report to go to Community Services Committee in June 2018.

The final component of the meeting was a discussion led by Marnie Mandel, Cultural Development Coordinator, on awareness and promotion of cultural resources. Unfortunately, this conversation extended beyond the timeframe of the meeting. Council members were asked to email their thoughts to continue the discussion next meeting,

Adjournment at 8:40 p.m.

Next Meeting: May 28, 2018 6:30 – 8:30pm
